The Senate Finishes the Free List—Paragraphs of the Tariff Bill—Nearly Through.

WASHINGTON, September 5.—The tariff bill was taken up in the Senate today and consideration of the free list proceeded with.

Mr. Hoar moved to insert in paragraph 389 (allowing free importation of books for colleges, educational and religious societies, etc.) the words "or by any college, academy, school or seminary of learning in the United States in its own behalf or in behalf of any of its professors or teachers." Agreed to.

Paragraph 545, putting fish on the free list, was laid aside without action.

Mr. Davis moved to insert binding twine on the free list, and Mr. Vance moved to amend the amendment by adding cotton bagging. Mr. Vance's motion was defeated. Mr. Paddock being the only Republican voting aye. The question recurring on Mr. Davis' amendment, Mr. Jones (Arkansas) moved to insert the words "burlaps and bags for grain made of burlaps." Rejected. The Republicans who voted aye were Mr. Allen, Mr. Mitchell, and Mr. Plumb. Neither Mr. Ingalls, Mr. Manderson nor Mr. Paddock voted.

Davis' amendment was then agreed to—years 38, 39, 40. All the Democrats except Blodgett voted aye in company with the following named Republicans: Allen, Allison, Cullom, Davis, Ingalls, McMahon, Manderson, Mitchell, Moody, Pierce, Plumb, Power, Sawyer, Spooner and Washburn. The negative votes were given by Aldrich, Blodgett, Cameron, Chandler, Dawes, Edmunds, Everts, Frye, Hawley, Higgins, Hiseock, Hoar, Platt, Quay, Sherman, Stewart, Stockbridge and Wolcott. Paddock stated at a subsequent stage of the proceedings that he was unavoidably absent when the vote was taken on Davis' amendment. If he had been present he would have voted for it as he had done yesterday.

On motion of Mr. Carlisle the word "degras" was struck off the free list in paragraph 573.

Mr. Plumb moved to strike off the free list (paragraph 579) hides raw or uncurled, whether dyed, tanned or pickled. Rejected. Years 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20. The affirmative votes were given by one Democrat, Pugh, and by the following Republicans: Allen, Allison, Cameron, Cullom, Higgins, Ingalls, Mitchell, Moody, Plumb, Quay, Stewart, Washburn, Allison and Wolcott. The other Democrats voted in the negative together with the following Republicans: Aldrich, Chandler, Dawes, Frye, Hale, Hawley, Hiseock, Hoar, McMillan, Pierce, Platt and Sawyer.

Mr. Vance moved to insert in the free list lumber, sawed boards, planks, deals and other lumber of hemlock, white wood, spruce, white pine and basswood. Mr. Manderson moved to strike out of the amendment the words "hemlock, white wood, spruce and basswood." After considerable discussion Mr. Manderson's amendment to Mr. Vance's motion was rejected—years 3 (Paddock, Plumb and Washburn), years 48. Vance's motion was also rejected. Ingalls, Manderson, Paddock and Plumb voting aye.

Mr. Plumb moved to insert in the free list "lumber, sawed boards, planks, deals and other lumber of white pine." Rejected—years 22, 23, 24, the Nebraska and Kansas Senators again voting with the Democrats.

Paragraph 211 in the schedule relating to saved boards was taken up, and the committee amendments agreed to. Also the amendment offered by Mr. Aldrich to place a duty of 25 per cent ad valorem on posts, railroad ties and telegraph poles of cedar. On motion of Mr. Plumb the duty on pine city boards was reduced from 42 to 31 per cent ad valorem.

Consideration of the free list was resumed. The committee amendment putting mica on the free list was rejected. Mica was then restored in paragraph 196 at the rate of 35 per cent ad valorem.

Paragraph 625 and the free list was, on motion of Mr. Carlisle, modified so as to read, "All mineral waters not artificial."

Mr. Quay moved to strike out of the free list paragraph 665, sulphate of quinine and all alkalis or salts of cinchona bark. The motion to strike quinine out of the free list was defeated. Years 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20. Following is the vote in detail: Yeas, Aldrich, Cameron, Chandler, Dawes, Edmunds, Hawley, Hiseock, McMillan, Moody, Platt, Quay, Sawyer, Stewart, Stockbridge, Wilson (Iowa), 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, Adjourned.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, September 5.—In the House today Mr. Breckenridge, speaking in his own behalf, said the statement that he knew or sympathized with the murderer of Clayton was cowardly, mean and false. He then turned his attention to Judge McClure, stating that on the return of the sub-committee the Republican members endorsed McClure for a high judicial position in Arkansas.

Mr. Lacey, (Iowa) chairman of the sub-committee, said he recommended Judge McClure in strong terms, believing him to be one of the best and most competent men in Arkansas.

Mr. Breckenridge proceeded to quote from a statement made by Mr. Blackburn (a Republican) to show the bad character of Mr. McClure. He criticized in severe language the action of the sub-committee asserting he had been denied witnesses after he had been promised they would be accorded him. No greater debauchery of a free ballot had ever been committed than that committed by the committee.

He said in conclusion: "Come to your conclusion and I will take my appeal to the people, regardless of party in any district, I have the honor to represent on the broad ground of common honesty and in November they will reverse both your conclusions and the method of your conclusions. (Democratic applause.)"

Mr. Dazell, of Pennsylvania, read in detail the testimony bearing on the theft of the ballot box at Plumerville, and said its theft was absolutely necessary to Breckenridge's return. Yet he stood here and asserted it had been stolen by Republicans. This was a Republican ballot box.

The House stood dumbfounded in the face of such a sublime embodiment of impudence. He commented upon the backwardness of the State of Arkansas in endeavoring to hunt down the murderers. From her desecrated soil the blood of John M. Clayton cried to heaven, not for vengeance, but for justice and the members of both sides were here as sacred ministers to execute her just decrees. (Republican applause.)

The debate having closed, Crisp, of Georgia, moved to recommit the case with instructions to the Committee on Elections to report which of the gentlemen received a majority in the second district of Arkansas. Lost. Yeas, 83, Nays, 101.

The vote was then taken on the minority resolution confirming Breckenridge's right to the seat. Lost. Yeas, 83, Nays, 101.

The resolution declaring the seat vacant was agreed to. Yeas 105, Nays 62.

The House then took a recess, the evening session to be for consideration of pension bills.

At the evening session the House passed thirty pension bills and at 10:30 adjourned.

DEATH ON THE RAIL

A NUMBER OF FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENTS YESTERDAY.

Particulars of the Wreck on the New York Central—Three Men Killed on a New Jersey Road.

ALBANY, N. Y., September 5.—Last night, at midnight, a successful attempt at train wrecking was made on the New York Central, near Greenbush. The train, which was on its way to Montreal, consisted of eight sleepers, which were well filled. It was completely derailed, by barring the shaking up of the passengers and bruising a half dozen or so, nothing more serious than wrecking the cars resulted.

A rail had been jammed into the cattle guards, wedged with timbers and securely held by fish plates. The whole arrangement was placed in a position to lift a train clear off the track.

An investigation revealed a similar obstruction on the south bound track, a little way below. Evidently it was the intention to wreck the freight trains some one or two miles as the regular Montreal passenger had passed and the one wrecked was an extra.

A reward of $5,000 is offered for the apprehension of the miscreants.

A NEW JERSEY COLLISION.

WHITELAND, N. J., September 5.—A passenger train on the Delaware and Hudson railroad ran into a freight train near West Point this morning. Engineer Thomas Murray, fireman James Starr and A. J. Keffer were killed. No passengers were injured.

KANSAS CITY, September 5.—It is reported that the wreck of a freight train occurred last night on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railway, at Caney, Kan. The engineer is reported killed and the fireman fatally scalded. Six cars of hogs were killed and eighteen cars of grain burned.

AN ATTEMPTED CRIME.

ALBANY, September 5.—Superintendent Bissell, of the New York Central, said tonight that an attempt was made yesterday to wreck a portion of a freight train at Van Warte street crossing, while the bridge was open. Had the cars not been stopped they would have plunged down into the river and lives been lost.

DERAILED NEAR OGDEN.

DENVER, September 5.—Union Pacific passenger train No. 20, leaving Ogden at 9:55 a. m., was thrown off the track at Croftden, forty miles east of there, by a broken rail. Three cars, a Pullman sleeper, a chair Rio Grande coach and the special car of President Bliss, of the Boston and Albany railroad, were derailed.

The cars are somewhat smashed and the passengers are badly shaken up. No one was badly injured.

EMPLOYERS COMBINE

An Alliance of Eastern Corporations.

It is Formed to Oppose Any Future Strike.

All the Works Are to be Closed in Case of a Labor Disturbance in Any One of Them.

PITTSBURGH, September 5.—A number of the richest corporations in the country have formed an alliance against strikes. Among the members are the Westinghouse system, the Yale Lock Co., the Colt Arms Co. and four or five other big factories, and presumably the Pullman interests.

In the compact it is agreed to that in case a strike occurs to enforce unreasonable demands, whether the strike be against one or all of the associated factories, all work is to cease. The strikers are to be allowed to remain idle until they see fit to work and no factory is to employ any worker who may have left any factory on a strike. Nor is any associated factory to seek workers during the strike from any of the federated works.

The institutions named employ between 50,000 and 60,000 workers and directly support 25,000 to 30,000 people, exclusive of other interests depending upon the earnings of these people. It is claimed by these manufacturers that the action of these workers has forced the alliance.

THE AFRICAN DISPUTE.

Stanley Speaks of the Cause of Emin's Change of Front.

LONDON, September 5.—In an interview with an editor of a Swiss newspaper, Stanley refuted various charges Emin Pasha had made against him. He declared that the letter from Wissman first upset Emin's gratitude toward and admiration for the English and made him weigh his chances on each side. Illness, resulting from his accident, placed him in the power of Wissman and the latter whispered things about Stanley, magnifying and distorting everything, until he attained his ends.

Proceedings of the Typothetae Convention in Boston Yesterday.

"Perhaps it was because of a land I had with Morse that I have been arrested," said Rodney today. "But as my dealings were perfectly square, and in view of the fact that Morse has the land in his own name, I do not see how on earth this charge could be trumped up against me. The day I left Portland I got a letter of recommendation from Morse, and it was on the strength of
